COURSE OVERVIEW

This course provides students with basic experience in the use of multimedia technologies for news gathering and presentation.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Understand the importance of convergence technology in 21st century journalism
Design and create an effective website
Capture and edit audio reports
Take creative and effective news photographs
Create and edit dynamic video
Understand and implement basic web design

GRADES

The grading scale is a standard ten percentage point scale:
90-100%=A, 80-89%=B, 70-79%=C, 60-69%=D, below 60%=F

In this course, simply doing an assignment does not result in an A. Failure to follow directions or meet criteria will result in a loss of points. Students should note the definition of each letter grade:

A is reserved for work that is exceptional
B is reserved for work that is above average
C is reserved for work that meets criteria
D is reserved for work that is below average
F is reserved for work that is failing/late/not

ASSESSMENT

Show and Tells

Students will bring examples of current topics to class to share with everyone and present what they are sharing.

Web Story

Students will create a website and create a journalistic blog on that site.

Audio Story

Students will record and edit an audio story with required components and post this story on their website.

Video Story

Students will shoot and edit a video story with required components and post this story on their website.

Look-Live

Students will create a live shot video that is not edited and would be appropriate for a live social media or broadcast story.

Tests and Quizzes

There will be a midterm and final exam. If necessary, there will be quizzes throughout the semester on the course content.

COURSE POLICIES

Special Needs.

Any student needing to arrange a reasonable accommodation for a documented disability and/or medical/mental health condition should contact Student Access and Accommodation Services at 350 Fell Hall, (309) 438-5853, or visit the website at StudentAccess.IllinoisState.edu.

Mental Health Resources.

Life at college can get very complicated. According to recent research, nearly 40% of college students are at-risk for developing generalized anxiety disorder and are less likely to seek help for it compared to other mental health issues. Students also sometimes feel overwhelmed, lost, experience depression, and struggle with relationship difficulties or diminished self-esteem. However, many of these issues can be effectively addressed with a little help. Student Counseling Services (SCS) helps students cope with difficult emotions and life stressors. Student Counseling Services is staffed by experienced, professional psychologists and counselors, who are attuned to the needs of college students. The services are FREE and completely confidential. Find out more at Counseling.IllinoisState.edu or by calling (309) 438-3655.

Illinois State University Bereavement Policy.

If a student experiences a death of an immediate family member or relative as defined below, the student will be excused from class for funeral leave, subsequent bereavement, and/or travel considerations. The student will provide appropriate documentation and arrange to complete missed classroom work as soon as possible according to the process outlined below.

Upon notification of the absence and proper documentation, each faculty member shall excuse the student from class according to this policy and provide an opportunity to complete missed exams, quizzes, and other required work. Ultimately, the student is responsible for all material covered in class and must work with each individual professor as soon as they return to complete any required work. Details can be found at the following website: <http://policy.illinoisstate.edu/students/2-1-27.shtml>

Attendance & Participation

Students will be expected to attend class. Attendance will be taken at the start of each class. I will NOT stop teaching to open attendance again, therefore it is important to be on time to class. It is not possible to participate in our class discussions if you are not present, if you are absent from class on a reading discussion day you can only receive 50% on the assignment. Each student is expected to have all assignments and reading completed before coming to class. I expect you to read the assigned material and come to class ready to discuss the content, taking notes would be beneficial to you. If I notice that many are not prepared for in-class discussions, we will begin each class with quizzes on the readings. If you miss a due date without a university excused absence you will only be able to earn half credit on that assignment. There are multiple in-class activity assignments that can only be completed if you are present, anyone absent those days will receive a zero on those assignments.

Deadlines

In journalism it is very important to understand and complete stories by the deadline. In keeping with this culture and standard story assignments in this course have a strict deadline. Any stories submitted past the due date and time will be only given 50% credit. After 2 weeks past the due date the story will become a zero without the opportunity to make up the assignment.

COURSE SCHEDULE

At any point throughout the duration of this course I reserve the right to change the syllabus details. Of course, I will inform you of these changes.
